

Web Site Privacy Policy

Effective May 12, 2004, St. Helena Hospital will not collect any personally identifiable information (e.g., name, phone number, e-mail address) without your knowledge. Like most organizations, we regularly monitor trends, traffic patterns, number of visits, etc., on our site, so we can better meet the needs of our customers. This does not entail collecting any personally identifiable information.

Any online job applications we receive are shared only within our health system for the purpose of hiring/recruiting. Under no circumstances is any information contained therein shared with or sold to anyone outside St. Helena Hospital. If you have set up a user profile, you may update your online application at any time using your established username and password. Applications are stored in our database for 24 months from the time of initial creation.

If you e-mail us via our web site, your message may be routed within St. Helena Hospital for the purpose of responding to your question or request. In addition, a hard copy of your message may be retained for up to one year for the purpose of quality improvement. Under no circumstances will your e-mail address be shared with or sold to anyone outside St. Helena Hospital.

This web site is solely owned and operated by St. Helena Hospital. No revenue, including advertising revenue, is received from any other source. If you have questions about this policy or any other aspect of our web site, please contact us at shuhealth@ah.org, and we will respond promptly.